This document to be read in conjunction with MITC, Cardmember agreement and Product T&Cs. Other important terms as applicable on credit cards are as mentioned below:

- 1. Interest free (grace) period (with illustration) - The interest free (grace) period could range between 20 to 50 days. However, such grace period is not applicable, if the previous month's balance has not been cleared in full.

Example: For an Account whose Statement Date is 20/11/2016, the Payment Due Date is 10/12/2016, which is 20 days from the Statement Date, is called interest free grace period.

2. Withdrawal Limits

(i) Credit Limit: Credit Limit is the maximum limit assigned to the Cardholder. The Credit and Cash limits will vary for each Cardholder and will be communicated at the time of delivery of the card & are also indicated in the monthly statement.

Key Facts on Credit Card Charges

(ii) Available Credit Limit: The Available Credit Limit is calculated by deducting the utilised limit from the Total Credit Limit. The credit and cash limits will vary for each cardholder and will be disclosed in the monthly statement.

(iii) Cash withdrawal limit: Cash Limit is the subset of the Total Credit limit assigned on the card. The limit will be communicated at the time of delivery of the card & are also indicated in the monthly statement. The cash limit will be made available to the card member by DBS Bank at its sole discretion and on such terms as may be communicated by DBS Bank from time to time.

In case where multiple credit cards are mapped to one customer, total spends can be done only up to the combined aggregate limit calculated over all the credit cards cumulatively. It is clarified that the aggregate credit limit has been defined as the maximum limit across all the credit cards held by the customer. Any transactions done in excess of the aggregate credit limit shall be declined.

3. Billing

The Bank will send at customers mailing address, a statement once a month for each billing period (hereinafter "Statement") during which there is any transaction or outstanding on the Card Account. The Bank may choose to send the Statement through one or more of the following modes:- Post, Email, SMS Messaging or Whatsapp. It shall be the responsibility of the Customer to access and view their credit card e-statements via mobile app or net banking. The Bank reserves the right to not send physical statements by mail / courier to customers who have an outstanding balance less than INR. 100.

These customers, however, can access their statements online and avail of e-statements. The customer can also request for a physical statement by submitting request at DBS service channels. In case of any change in customer's communication address, they are advised to contact the Bank immediately to ensure that they receive Statements regularly and on time.

The monthly statement of account will be available for a period of 12 months post which it would be purged at bank's end. Customers can request for duplicate statements subject to payment of service fee which will be communicated as part of fees & charges

4. Minimum amount payable

All Bank Credit Card(s) may offer the Cardmember(s) a revolving credit facility, wherein the Cardmember(s) may choose to pay only the Minimum Amount Due (MAD) as indicated on the Statement. The Total Payment Due (TAD) from the Cardmember or the MAD should be sent by the Cardmember on or before The Payment Due Date, which is also indicated on the Statement. MAD is the minimum amount customers are required to pay to keep their Card Account in good credit standing.

Minimum Amount Due (MAD) is calculated as a percentage of Total Amount Due for Credit card i.e, 5% (subject to minimum of INR 50) + new EMI debits for the month or any previously unpaid EMI debits +GST +Application Fee+ any overlimit amount +previously unpaid MAD+ other fees/charges if any, as defined per RBI circular from time to time.

Key Facts on Credit Card Charges

Paying only the Minimum Amount Due every month will result in the repayment stretching over a long period with consequent interest payment on Card Member's outstanding balance.

5. Method of payment

The Cardholder has the benefit of the following modes of payment to the bank:

- a) Pay using Credit Card Mobile App: Cardmember can make payments at their convenience using DBS Card+ Mobile App/ Other credit card apps (if available). Customer can manage their account and make payments to their Card instantly using other bank account.
- b) Online Card Payment: Cardmember can make their Credit Card payment instantly using other Bank accounts to pay their Card outstanding and receive confirmation for their Payment instantly.
- c) Cheque payment: Cardmember can make payment of their Credit Card at DBS / Co-brand Partners' branches via depositing Cash or cheque. The cheque should be made payable to 'DBS Bank Credit Card No XXXX XXXX XXXX XXXX' (mention cardholders' 16-digit credit card number). Cheque payment can be submitted at: - Drop-boxes at DBS BANK and Co-brand partner branches in India. (Visit www.dbs.com/in for a complete list of Branches)

6. Billing Disputes Resolution

All contents of the Statement(s) will be deemed correct and accepted by the Cardmember(s) unless, within 30 days of the issue of Statement, the Cardmember(s) informs the DBS Bank of any discrepancies in writing, failing which it would be construed that all the charges indicated on the Statement are in order. As per the Visa regulation, in case of a discrepancy, it is mandatory to inform the bank in writing to initiate a Charge Dispute on your behalf. If the aforesaid discrepancies are prima facie found to be legitimate by the Bank, the Bank may reverse the charge on a temporary basis until the completion of subsequent investigations by the Bank to its full and final satisfaction. If the said investigations conducted by the Bank indicate that the liability of such (discrepancies) charges is accruing to the said Cardmember(s), then the charge will be reinstated in the subsequent Statement and fees/charges shall be claimed by the Bank in accordance with the charges indicated herein above. Notwithstanding the provisions 13 herein, the Bank shall not exceed duration of 60 days in informing the said Cardmember(s) of the result of the investigations conducted by the Bank. The customer can reach out to the bank for dispute through any of the below mentioned ways:

- a) Email: - The cardmember can send an email to supercardcare@dbs.com with your Credit Card no., registered mobile number and dispute details.
