Notes:

- 1/ Figures for 2006 have been reclassified to make them consistent with the current year's presentation
2/ One-time items include gains from sale of buildings in Hong Kong, allowance write-back for a Singapore property, and impairment charges for Thai investment
3/ Includes customer loans classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss on the balance sheet
4/ Includes interbank assets classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss on the balance sheet
5/ Includes customer deposits classified as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss on the balance sheet
6/ Return on assets, return on equity, specific allowances (loan)/average loan and per share data for the quarters are computed on an annualised basis
7/ Minority interests are not included as equity in the computation of net asset value and return on equity

Third-quarter net profit rose 17% from a year ago to $648 million before one-time items. Net interest and fee income reached records as DBS captured the benefits of the region's continued growth in a wide range of customer businesses. Income rose 16%, outstripping a 12% increase in expenses.

Compared to the previous quarter, net profit was 2% lower as improved contributions from customer businesses were offset by mark-to-market losses of $42 million and a charge of $43 million in specific and general allowances for collateralised debt obligations (CDOs). None of the $2.36 billion of CDOs held by DBS is in default.

An impairment charge of $38 million was taken below the line for DBS' 16% stake in TMB Bank in Thailand to reflect its market valuation as at 30 September. Including this item, the third quarter's net profit would be $610 million.

Net interest income increased 15% from a year ago and 2% from the previous quarter to $1.05 billion. The increase was due to higher asset volumes as loans expanded 23% from a year ago and 6% over the quarter. Net fee income grew 38% from a year ago and 9% from the previous quarter to $403 million from increased volumes in a range of corporate and capital market activities.

A net trading loss of $63 million was recorded compared to a net trading income of $97 million in the previous quarter. The $42 million mark-to-market losses for CDOs were included in this line item. Wider credit spreads during the quarter also reduced mark-to-market values of trading securities and credit-linked derivatives, more than offsetting gains in other trading activities such as foreign exchange.

Expenses rose 12% from a year ago to $652 million but were 1% below the previous quarter. Staff and computerisation costs, two major expense items, were actively managed to enable the cost-income ratio to improve to 42% from 43% in the previous quarter and 44% a year ago.

Against the backdrop of a benign environment, the non-performing loan ratio fell to 1.2% from 1.4% in the previous quarter. Specific allowances for loans of $28 million corresponded to a charge of 11 basis points, which was lower than most recent quarters. Total provision charges, including those for CDOs, amounted to $80 million.

Return on equity rose to 13.0% from 12.3% a year ago while return on assets remained at 1.14%.

Note:

The increase in net interest income from both a year ago and the previous quarter was due to higher asset volumes. Customer loans increased at a faster rate than other assets, resulting in a better asset mix.

Interest margins fell seven basis points from the previous quarter to 2.14%. Two basis points were due to the full-period impact of the subordinated debt issue completed in May. The remaining five basis points were due to lower interest spreads in Hong Kong and Singapore.

Overall customer loan yields declined compared to the previous quarter as corporate and SME loan yields in Singapore and Hong Kong fell. Yields on securities declined in line with a lower interest rate environment.

Overall customer deposit costs were stable as a higher cost of funds in Hong Kong was offset by lower costs of fixed deposits in Singapore.

Net fee and commission income grew 38% from a year ago to $403 million, led by corporate and capital market activities such as stockbroking, investment banking and loan syndication. Stronger consumer confidence boosted fees from credit card transactions and wealth management product sales.

Compared to the previous quarter, net fee and commission income was 9% higher, with the growth led by stockbroking, investment banking and loan syndication.

For the nine months, net fee and commission income rose 27% to $1.08 billion across all income sources with the exception of fund management.

The trading businesses recorded a net trading loss of $47 million. Credit spreads on securities and credit-linked derivatives widened. The reduction in market valuation of the credit trading portfolio more than offset gains in other trading activities such as foreign exchange.

A net trading loss from other businesses of $16 million included mark-to-market losses of $42 million from $1.12 billion of CDOs held by Red Orchid Secured Assets (Rosa), a conduit managed by DBS. The losses reflected the current valuation of these CDOs due to the current conditions in the credit markets. None of the CDOs whose value has been marked down is in default.

Net income on sales of investment securities amounted to $121 million as capital gains were recorded for the sale of debt and equity investments. Market conditions were conducive to profit taking for some equity investments. The gains were higher than both comparative periods.

Income from other sources, including dividend and rental income, amounted to $21 million, above the $7 million a year ago but slightly below the $24 million in the previous quarter.

For the nine months, trading income from trading businesses fell to $222 million from $464 million a year ago, but was more than offset by higher net income from the sale of financial investments, which rose to $321 million from $79 million.

Specific allowances for loans amounted to $28 million, which, like the $27 million a year ago, was one of the lowest in recent quarters. Charges in Hong Kong and the region were partially offset by write-backs in Singapore this quarter. By business unit, the charges were for corporate and SME loans. There was a small net write-back in specific allowances for consumer loans.

Specific allowances for non-loan assets of $42 million included a $33 million charge for CDOs held as financial investments. These charges relate to the $275 million of CDOs that have some degree of exposure to US sub-prime assets. An additional $10 million charge was taken as general allowance for such CDOs. None of the $1.24 billion of CDOs held as financial investments is in default.

For the nine months, total allowances rose 86% to $249 million as general allowances and specific allowances for non-loan assets increased. They were partially offset by lower specific allowances for loans.

Consumer Banking's (CBG) net interest income was lower than a year ago as the benefit of higher loan and deposit volumes in Singapore and Hong Kong was more than offset by lower spreads in Hong Kong. Compared to the previous quarter, net interest income was little changed as the impact of higher volumes in Singapore was offset by lower spreads in Hong Kong. Non-interest income was higher than a year ago due to higher sales of wealth management products. The increase in expenses from both comparative periods was due to higher wage and support costs. Specific allowances were lower than a year ago.

Enterprise Banking's (EB) net interest income declined from the previous quarter as higher loan and deposit volumes were more than offset by lower spreads in Hong Kong. Compared to a year ago, higher volumes were partially offset by lower spreads in Hong Kong. Expenses rose as a result of higher wage costs compared to the previous quarter and higher support costs compared to a year ago. Total allowances fell as specific allowances were below both comparative periods.

Corporate and Investment Banking's (CIB) net interest income was higher than both comparative periods as loans and deposits increased. Compared to the previous quarter, non-interest income fell as higher fee income was more than offset by the mark-to-market losses in Rosa's CDOs and a decline in capital gains from the sale of equity investments. Expenses were higher than a year ago due to increased support costs. Total allowances were higher than both comparative periods due to increased general allowances.

Global Financial Markets' (GFM) net interest income rose from both comparative periods due to higher contributions from money market activity, while non-interest losses were incurred as wider credit spreads reduced the mark-to-market values of trading securities and credit-linked derivatives.

Central Treasury Unit (CTU) manages the Group's asset and liability interest rate positions as well as investments of the Group's excess liquidity. Central Operations encompasses a range of activities from corporate decisions and income and expenses not attributed to other business segments. Asset management and private banking activities are included in this segment.

Singapore

Net interest income was higher than both comparative periods as loans and deposits expanded. Fee income was higher than both comparative periods while trading income was lower.

Expenses fell from the previous quarter due to lower wage and computerisation costs, but they were higher than a year ago.

Allowances were higher due to higher charges for non-loan assets, partially offset by a net write-back in specific allowances for loans.

Hong Kong

The third quarter's results incorporate an appreciation of the Singapore dollar against the Hong Kong dollar of 1% from the previous quarter and 5% from a year ago.

Net interest income fell below comparative periods as higher loan and deposit volumes were more than offset by a decline in interest margins.

Non-interest income was higher than the previous quarter due to higher stockbroking activity and demand from corporate customers for foreign exchange hedging products. Compared to a year ago, unit trust sales also increased.

The increase in expenses was led by IT investment costs. Allowances were higher than the previous quarter due to an increase in general allowances.

Other regions

Outside of Singapore and Hong Kong, the largest contributions are from India, Indonesia and Greater China.

VALUE AT RISK AND TRADING INCOME

The Group uses a Value at Risk (“VaR”) measure as one mechanism for monitoring and controlling trading risk. The VaR is calculated using a one-day time horizon and a 99% confidence interval. The following table shows the period-end, average, high and low VaR for the trading risk exposure of the DBSH Group for the period from 1 October 2006 to 30 September 2007. DBS changed its trading book VaR methodology from Parametric VaR (PVaR) to Historical Simulation VaR (HSVaR) in September 2006. The histogram below is based on HSVaR.

It requires the disclosure of qualitative and quantitative information about exposure to risks arising from financial instruments, including minimum disclosures about credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk. The disclosure requirements currently in FRS 32: Financial Instruments: Disclosure and Presentation have been relocated to FRS 107. The adoption of FRS 107 creates additional disclosure requirements for the Group's financial statements.

INT FRS 108: Scope of FRS 102 – Share-based Payment
